

WORKPLACE SAFETY AND HEALTH AWARDS (MANUFACTURING)

The annual Workplace Safety and Health (WSH) Awards (Manufacturing) is organised by the Singapore Manufacturing Federation (SMF)'s Health, Safety, Security and Environment Function Committee (HSSE FC) and supported by the Ministry of Manpower (MOM) and the Workplace Safety and Health Council (WSHC) to recognise good ideas and best practices in the manufacturing sector and raise awareness of workplace safety and health.

Two award categories are given out - the WSH Innovation Awards (Manufacturing), which recognises companies that demonstrate safety practices in the manufacturing workplaces through innovative solutions, and the WSH Awards for Supervisors (Manufacturing) to honour the efforts made by supervisors who demonstrated care for their workers under their charge by ensuring the health and safety in the workplace.

The 10th edition of the awards was presented on 31 August 2018, which was in conjunction with the SMF's TGIF@SMF. In total, 12 teams were awarded the WSH Innovation Awards (Manufacturing), and eight supervisors from five companies received the WSH Awards for Supervisors (Manufacturing).
